

Public Comment: FCC Proceeding 13-86

I oppose any changes to the current FCC indecency standards. The FCC must continue to vigorously oppose ALL indecent content, even if brief or "fleeting."

The Supreme Court has affirmed the FCC's authority to enforce policies prohibiting indecent broadcast content during hours when children are likely to be in the viewing or listening audience. Relaxing the current policy would not serve the public interest.

I urge the FCC to reject all proposals that would allow for the broadcast of expletives and nudity on FCC-licensed stations.

Take Action Against FCC's New "Anything Goes" Rule Change!

Nudity, f-bombs, kinky sex, fetishes, orgies — on prime-time shows watched by millions of children. That's what is on the horizon, if the FCC's proposed rules change goes into effect. (For an example of the kind of thing the FCC ALREADY allows on TV, see page 4.)

But fortunately, the rules change hasn't gone into effect YET! The old rules STILL APPLY! And the law requires that, before such a change can go into effect, the FCC must allow the public to comment.

We cannot let this change go unchallenged!

You can STILL make your voice heard. The FCC is accepting public comments on the proposed rules change until June 20th.

PLEASE take this opportunity to let the FCC know that you OPPOSE their proposed changes — and remind them that they don't work for the entertainment industry's millionaire bosses, but for the American people!

File your public comment with the FCC, and tell them America's families want MORE enforcement of broadcast decency laws — NOT LESS!

The FCC will not accept general email comments. To be valid, you are required to file a formal comment via the FCC's website, or U.S. mail.

Please follow these instructions, to ensure your comment is accepted by the FCC:

Dear Ms. Dortch,

I am a retired public school teacher, having taught 31 years.

It grieves me to see, hear, and learn that children and youth are often hearing profanity on television - at a time when you wouldn't think that it would be allowed.

It would be wonderful to hear from you, telling me that the filthy stuff is absolutely not being allowed on T.V. !!!

Thanks for your hard work! Your efforts will pay off. Absolutely !!

Sincerely,

Bonnie Alier

Dear Commission -

We oppose any changes in the current FCC indecency standards, especially those suggested in 13-86. In fact, you should be doing more to control expletives, cursing and nudity on TV and radio. The increase in this stuff, I'm sure, is part of a trend toward rudeness and violence in our culture.

Sincerely,

Maurice Roos
